THE WEEKLY FOR PRODUCTIVE CZECHS

Ekonom

Ekonom is published every Thursday.
web: www.ekonom.cz

The Economist is the leading economic weekly in the Czech Republic, bringing readers key information which allows them to navigate the complex environment of today. It offers important news from the capital markets, the latest information from the field of science and technology, as well as legal topics which have an impact on the business environment in the Czech Republic. The magazine also focuses on personal development, education and people management issues in companies. At the end of the year, The Economist publishes a special issue in which the editors, together with other leading writers from the Economia media house, examine the expected key events in politics, economics, business, law and technology for the coming year.

Logistika

Logistika is a professional supplement of the weekly Ekonom, intended mainly for company management and experts who decide on systemic and supplementary solutions for the movement of materials and goods, especially in the transport, industrial, wholesale and other sectors. It provides a comprehensive overview of the state, news and trends in logistics. It covers current practices and developments in the areas of transport, warehousing, materials handling and distribution, and the use of information technology at home and abroad. It enables manufacturers and logistics service providers to present technical resources, information and control technologies and the offer of transport, forwarding and other logistics services. The magazine cooperates closely with the Czech Logistics Association and with authorities in the field from practice and universities.

The Logistics (Logistika) supplement is also part of Hospodářské noviny.
